Designing Perennial Gardens

adults

The art of gardening is creating a living work of art! For over 20 years, our presenter, Jeff Trader, has designed his home gardens to encourage the viewer to sit, relax and enjoy! His gardens delight from early Spring through Fall. Perennials abound with a touch of annuals for added color throughout the seasons. Waterfalls and a lily pond can add enjoyment to a perennial garden as well.

Jeff's presentation will highlight the key elements in garden design for garden beds. Come and enjoy, get some questions answered if you have a perennial bed and are contemplating plans for 2025 and beyond (especially as you view your garden beds today and are looking for wonderful planting ideas). His goal is to share the benefit of his experience with all of you.

Consider visiting the GHS School Garden, behind the high school from 5:15 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. for a tour setup by Karla Geiger, School Garden Coordinator. Bring your favorite perennials for an exchange. Light refreshments served.

Chicken Barbecue Bulgogi (닭불고기)

adults

Bulgogi, a popular Korean dish, is traditionally made with thinly sliced beef marinated in a savory-sweet sauce and grilled over high heat. However, for a lighter alternative, Chicken Bulgogi uses chicken instead, offering a flavorful, juicy dish that's perfect for hot summer days. In Korea, this dish is particularly enjoyed to stay energized and hydrated during the heat. The marinade, packed with soy sauce, sesame oil, garlic, ginger, and a touch of sweetness from sugar or honey, gives the chicken a rich umami flavor that's enhanced by grilling. While you can cook it on a regular grill, using a charcoal grill is recommended for that authentic smoky finish. Whether grilling for a crowd or cooking a quick dinner at home, Chicken Bulgogi brings authentic Korean flavors to your table!

Cucumber Kimchi O-Ee-So-Bak-Ee (오이소박이)

adults

Cucumber Kimchi involves hollowing out cucumbers and stuffing them with vegetables and kimchi paste, offering a refreshing and flavorful side dish, especially popular in summer. This traditional method preserves the cucumber's texture and allows for slow fermentation, enhancing the taste. Unlike quicker, cut-up versions that ferment faster and can become mushy, this stuffed variety maintains its crunch while developing a better flavor.
