DANCE RECITAL

The Greendale Park and Recreation Department's annual dance recital will be held Saturday, April 12, 2025 at the Greendale High School Auditorium. Program will begin at 6:00 p.m. $5 per person including children.

Please note: Participants will be required to purchase a t-shirt and leotard as the required apparel for the recital (this is an additional expense if wishing to participate in the 2025 recital-Miss Kathleen will have further information closer to the date of the recital). Shoe swap will be held on Monday, October 7th from 5:00-7:00 p.m. in Greendale High School Room #058.

Acting Workshops

ages 7 through 16

We will learn about the different visual languages we use with our face, emotions, and body posture. From these, we will try different improv scenarios at random, and see how easy it is to 'get into character' and tap into our creative expression through the different visual cues. We will then write our own part to act out!

Session I
Dates: Wednesday, October 9 #222050.1
Time: 5:00-6:00 p.m.
Fee: Resident: $30.00
Non-Resident: $35.00

Each week we will dive into a different emotion, and visual cue. Through writing random ideas in a hat, we will then act out improv scenarios, and utilize the different emotions and expressions of the week. By the end, everyone will have a whole repertoire of acting tools to not only utilize the tone of our voice, as well as hand gestures and silent body movements to enhance our dialogue.

Session II
Dates: Wednesdays, November 6-20 #222050.2
Time: 5:00-6:00 p.m.
Fee: Resident: $80.00
Non-Resident: $90.00

Location: Greendale Middle School
Art Room 290

Instructor: Do Art Cast Members

Note: Do Art Productions as held hundreds of workshops across the country and have been in the business of creating comics for 5 years.

Poms/Jazz

ages 7 and older

Shake your poms and get ready to move! Learn the fundamentals of poms from arm and leg placements plus technical skills, flexibility, and synchronization. This combo class also offers instruction in jazz technique, including big energetic moves like leaps, jumps, turns, and unique footwork. Instructors will have poms available for use in class.

Dates: Thursdays #222066.1
September 19-November 7

Time: 5:00-5:55 p.m.

Location: Greenfield Community Center

Fee: Resident $40.00
Non-Resident $60.00

Instructors: Greenfield Kidnastics Staff

Note: Please come dressed in tennis shoes and active wear. Bring a filled bottle of water.

Line Dance

adults 55 years and older

If you think cowboy boots and hats whenever you hear the words "line dancing" then you're only partially right. Although country music has more than its fair share of line dances, it is not limited to country music. Line dancing is an excellent way to stay fit no matter what your age. Some previous experience helpful. No partner needed. Beginner students can meet with the instructor 15 minutes prior to the first class starting to get an overview of the common steps used in class.

Dates: Tuesdays
Session I September 10-October 15 #210304.1

Note: During registration you will be asked which instrument your child is playing, what grade they are in and who their classroom teacher is.

Online registration will close end of day Monday, September 9th. After this date, registration must be done in person or over the phone.

Private Voice Lessons

grades 6 through 8
(middle school students only)

Learning to sing can be an immensely rewarding experience. Unlike other instruments, the voice is a part of you, and learning to use it well opens up virtually limitless possibilities for self-expression (artistry, entertainment, worship, or just plain fun).

Have you ever wanted to take voice lessons?

Whatever your youth's reason, this new cooperative venture with Greendale School District, is to encourage and guide your youth's growth as a singer.

Lessons for younger singers will concentrate more on depth of expression and healthy singing, and less on expanding the vocal range or difficult repertoire.

Dates: Wednesdays and Fridays #220216.1
October 2-December 13
exclude November 27 & 29

Time: 25 minute lessons, beginning at 8:45 a.m. and ending at 11:45 a.m., based on registrants, time slots will be assigned by the instructor.

Location: Greendale Middle School
Choir Room

Fee: Resident $5.00
Non-Resident $10.00

Instructor: Emily Wrobel, GSD Vocal Director

Note: Due to limited availability, youth may only be registered for one day/time per week.

Clay, Clay, Clay!

grades 3 through 5

Students will explore different hand building techniques while developing their own artistic vision. We will explore coil and armature construction techniques on each of the first two construction dates. Work will need to dry out before being fired in the kiln followed with painting and/or glazing on the final date of class. Glazed works will need to be fired a second time and will need to be picked up at the Park and Rec office AFTER December 4th.

Dates: Saturdays #220401.1

Construction November 2 & 9

Comic Book Workshops

ages 7 through 16

In this workshop, we will explore the many different angles and tools of not only comics but self-expression. Each week we will explore a different aspect of comics from paneling, to character, to plot, as well as learn about the different aspects of inspiration and expressing ourselves. By the end we will have created many of our own comics, as well as see how to generate our own. Our goal is to always show that gratitude in being ourselves and the creativity that can sprout from expressing this. Everyone will receive stickers, bookmarks, and a variety of other material to further their comic creations.

Session I

Dates: Wednesdays #220419.1

September 18-October 2

Time: 5:00-6:00 p.m.

Fee: Resident: $80.00

Mandala Drawing

ages 16 and older

While extraordinary as a standalone work of art, mandalas hold symbolic and meditative meaning beyond their vibrant appearance. The habit of creating and collecting mandalas is a transformative practice that is intended to restore inner peace and wisdom within. Join us as we break down a complex art form into simple lines and shapes to create your own unique mandala. We will use a few simple tools like compasses, protractors, rulers, pencils and pens to help create the foundation of our mandalas.

Traditional Hardcover Book Binding

ages 16 and older

Traditional hardcover book binding involves several steps to create a durable and aesthetically pleasing book. Overall, traditional hardcover book binding requires skill, precision, and attention to detail to create a high-quality finished product that is both functional and visually appealing. Each student will complete their books during the class, but they will need to dry under pressure overnight. Participants will be instructed on how to accomplish this at home. This is a course for beginners, but does involve intermediate concepts and fine motor skills in a relatively fast-paced class environment. Students will learn to fold paper, stitch together the signatures, glue the block and cover, back and spine to create a 4.5"x6" blank book.
